

HORIZON CHRISTIAN SCHOOL

Horizon Christian School Admissions Criteria

The following criteria have been set forth as a guide for students considering application to Horizon Christian School. Parents/guardians must agree to abide by the policies and guidelines as set forth in the Student Handbook (link). Parents are expected to understand that the teaching at Horizon is from a Biblical perspective, and are expected to demonstrate a willingness to support this teaching. To be considered for admission:

- The parents/guardian understands that all teaching will be from a Biblical perspective, and that our guiding principal for instruction is the Bible.
- The student will relate to staff and other students in manner consistent with Scripture.
- The student will demonstrate a cooperative spirit.
- The student does not have a criminal record (minor traffic violations excluded), and the student is not under a school suspension, nor has been expelled from another school.
- The student has a sufficiently positive record of academic, behavioral, and emotional preparedness to facilitate success at Horizon.
- The student has been promoted the previous school year.
- The student is performing at grade level.
- The student has a GPA of 2.5 or higher.
- The student has passed the IREAD-3 (as applicable).
- The student has passed the ISTEP or other standardized testing (as applicable).
- The student has passed the Indiana DOE standardized tests in Algebra I, Biology, and English 10 (as applicable).
- The parents/guardians understand that they are responsible for all financial obligations for the student.

Based on these criteria, the administration is given authority to admit qualified students and families. Any exceptions to these policies must be approved by the Head of School.

Although we make every effort to discern which students Horizon Christian School can best minister to, we will not discriminate in our admissions practices on the basis of race, color, national or ethnic origins, or gender.

We reserve the right to change the application process and criteria and any associated fees at any time.
